“Don’t Feed the Stereotype” Exposition

Call Out to uOttawa Student Artist!

On November 15th, the International House will be hosting a “Don’t Feed the Stereotype” Exposition and promotional campaign in UCU Level 0. The Expo and campaign will take a popular culture approach to addressing issues of diversity, in an effort to promote a positive approach to diversity on campus.

As a part of the activity planned for the Expo, International House is looking to the University of Ottawa student community to make submissions for a campus-wide art competition!

Submissions in all fields of art will be accepted (within reasonable limits), including, but not limited to, dance, music, sculpture, painting, etc. The theme for all submissions is the phrase “Don’t Feed the Stereotype”. Submissions will be showcased in the Agora on November 29th from 9:00am- 4:00pm. Prizes for top artists will be awarded at 5:00pm that day.

We encourage all artists, and non-artists, to indulge their creativity and make a submission!

Deadline for submission will be November 20th, 2018! They are to be dropped off with the attached form at International House, RM 211- E, in the University Centre terminus.

Note: Video and/or audio tapes or auditions of live performances (such as dance, or musical performance) are required! Please contact International House to make the necessary arrangements.
